

COLUMBIAN '78

A black and white photograph of the exterior of Columbia High School. The building has a light-colored, textured facade. The words "COLUMBIA HIGH SCHOOL" are prominently displayed in large, dark, block letters across the upper portion of the wall. Below the name, there are two large, dark rectangular windows. In the foreground, a concrete walkway leads to a set of stairs with a metal railing. Three students are visible: one sitting on the stairs, and two standing near the railing. A tall, dark, L-shaped light fixture stands on the walkway.

A season of many things!

A Zest Of Enthusiasm

On Thursday, August 25, 1977, the Columbia High School season began with a zest of enthusiasm. Schedules were set, classes assigned, different activities planned, faculty and students were reacquainted — and another year had begun

CAPITALS IN ACTION!

Learning New Things

Each new day, students, teachers, the Administration and the faculty members learned more and more about each other. They learned how to listen to what they had once ignored, respect what they had at one time treated with disrespect, and accept the things that could not be changed.

A Season For The No. 1 Caps

In spite of all the changes that were made, and the new rules that were put into action each day still brought a feeling of togetherness and excitement. Indeed, this 1977-78 school year has shown us that "to everything there is a season" and this was the season for the No. 1 CAPTAINS!

THE LAST OF A DYING RACE

We, the graduating class of 1978, have at times been put down for our feeling for the old Columbia High School. It has been said, "it is just a building," but to us it is more than that. It is a special place where we first experienced the age-old traditions which have always and will always be a part of Columbia High School. Therefore, we will forever treasure the memories we received as the last class to have been a part of the old and the new schools.

Tomorrow Never Comes Except —

In Terms Of What We Do Today

We look back and remember the happy times
feeling the rewards of hard work and dedication.
At times we have felt all alone, isolated in the midst of a crowd. Our existence has been one of constant new beginnings and continuous endings filling our lives and our memories. It was our year molded by the vast and diverse character of who we were and what we had become.

We chose as our class colors, yellow and white with the yellow rose as our flower . . . Tomorrow never comes except in terms of what we do today.

MEMORIES

Memories treasured in our hearts and in our minds
Echoing the past through the corridors of time

Memories of holding hands and school life days
remembering the good times past
And late lunches and football games
And being the graduating senior at last

But most of all the making it through with smiles and hugs between friends and you

Memories . . . Memories
Memories of the way we were

This year the COLUMBIA HIGH CAPITALS had another successful year in football. The Caps ended the season with a 8-3 record. The 4-AAAA Region Runners-Up lost to Summerville in first round tournament action in Summerville. The Capitals under the head coaching of Jim Ringer had four outstanding young men to make All Area Team, and one of the four players to make the 1977-78 Shrine Bowl in North Carolina.

CAPS - 14 DREHER - 6

Behind the heroic plays of Terry Blocker and the running of Mike Hawkins, the Caps were able to claim this victory over Dreher in a wild region opener. Hawkins, who was the game's leading rusher, scored the first touchdown on a 29 yard run. Blocker kicked the PAT kick to give the Caps a 7-0 lead with 5:26 in the first quarter. With 1:00 remaining in the quarter Dreher came over from the five but the PAT failed. In the second half the Caps scored again when Steve Leapart ran a six-yard play for a touchdown and Cas Danielowski added the extra point.

CAPS - 28 LOWER RICHLAND - 6

The Caps now 4-1 dominated action in the second half of this game to thump Lower Richland. The teams traded first period touchdowns and swapped one abortive threat each in the second quarter before the Capitals took control of the game. Pernel Starks picked up a key first down that set up a touchdown from Steve Leapart to Terry Blocker. Cas Danielowski converted and Caps went ahead 7-6. In the third period Jimmy Cain scored from two yards out. In the fourth quarter Terry Blocker picked off a pass and raced down the sidelines for another score. To ice the score George Wright intercepted a pass and powered 23 yards untouched.

CAPS - 7 FLORA - 0

Pernel Starks found Terry Blocker behind the Flora secondary and tossed a 51 yard touchdown pass early in the third period to give the Caps a 7-0 victory in a region clash. The touchdown play decided the outcome of a defensive battle. DeWitt boosted the Caps record to 5-1 on the year and 1-1 in regional competition. Although Flora threatened twice the Caps defense made sure the Falcons never got closer than the Caps' 10.

CAPS - 21 FAU CLAIRE - 6

Optimistic Columbia capitalized on the Shamrocks' mistake to capture a victory Homecoming night. The Caps took advantage of David Seigler's fumble recovery at Fau Claire's 14, where Pernel Starks later scored. Cas Danielowski's PAT kick was successful and the Caps had a 7-0 lead in the first period. Caps scored again on a punt return by Blocker. Caps now 6-1 overall and 4-1 in region play.

CAPS - 24 NEWBERRY - 11

Columbia whipped Newberry in a non-conference game. Terry Blocker set up the first score with a punt return to the Bulldogs' 34, intercepted two passes which set up the stage for two other scores, and he caught a touchdown pass from Steve Leapart to round out a great evening. The victory boosted the Caps' record to 7-1 on the year and marked an important step along the road to its second straight playoff appearance.

CAPS - 21 SPRING VALLEY - 31

Spring Valley's ground game eating up yardage in big clunks, repulsed each Caps' rally bid. It appeared the Caps had a break when the Vikings had third and 21, but they completed a pass for 27 yards and a first down, and backed a victory for Region 4AAAA Crown Vikings went on to the playoffs as the region's top birth.

During the 1977-78 Football Season the most popular name around Columbia was Terry Blocker. This year the Cap's defensive and offensive threat was named BACK OF THE YEAR by the COLUMBIA RECORD. Other awards given to the star back were BACK OF THE WEEK, CHS. MOST VALUABLE BACK, 4-AAAA BACK OF THE YEAR, PRE-AMERICAN TEAM. Blocker was named to the 1977 Shrine Bowl where he was co-captain of the team. Terry's outstanding plays enabled him to make the All Area Team Offensive and Defense.

COLUMBIA 70 CAMDEN 50

Columbia exploded late in the fourth quarter and went on to down Camden. The home club scored 15 straight points in the final three minutes to overcome a 57-55 deficit and claim the win. Walter Hughey converted a 3-point play and then stole the ball and canned a layup to ignite the decisive Columbia spree. With 1:27 left, Terry Blocker was fouled during a jump ball situation and Camden's coach was later called for a technical. Blocker went to the line and made all four shots for a 66-57 Cap lead to wrap up the victory. The guard tandem of Hughey and Grover Phillips paced the winners with 17 points each with the majority of the shots coming from long range jumpers.

COLUMBIA 67 EAU CLAIRE 85

Eau Claire bombarded the Caps in a 4-AAAA Region match. The CAPS jumped out to a quick 16-8 lead with Walter Hughey hitting from outside and Terry Blocker controlling the boards in the inside. Hughey finished the game with 28 points and Blocker scored 13. The Shamrocks defenders cut off the CAPS scoring drives and the CAPS could find no-one to assist Hughey's hot hand in the second half. The full court press caused the CAPS to make numerous turn overs and the Shamrocks capitalized.

COLUMBIA 86 LEXINGTON 61

Everybody got in on the scoring as the Capitals put on a sparkling performance to crush the Wildcats. Coach Bartone substituted frequently and the CAPS popped cotton all night. Terry Blocker led the scoring with 29 and he also pulled down 12 rebounds. The game was never in doubt as the CAPITALS raced to a 26-14 first quarter lead and never tailed. Travis Blocker and Grover Phillips scored 10 points each to trail the 29 hit by Terry Blocker. The CAPS reeled off 10 unanswered points to grab a 14-8 advantage with 2:54 left in the opening quarter. Walter Hughey hit a jumper. Phillips scored from the corner, Terry Blocker hacked a rebound, Harold Jackson hit a jumper and Hughey scored from the outside to finish the scoring surge.

1977-78 VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM: Donald Dantzler, Walter Hughey, Chris Dixon, Terry Blocker, Travis Blocker, Reggie Hopkins, Jerome Dickerson, Dennis Belton, Danny Migotisi, Harold Jackson, Stein Seabrook, Roger Richardson, and Grover Phillips.

COLUMBIA 58 AIKEN 56

Chris Dixon and Harold Jackson scored consecutive baskets to push the CAPS out front for good as they held off late-charging Aiken. Dixon's basket with three minutes remaining and Jackson's jumper from the left of the key with 2:32 on the clock gave the CAPITALS the lead for good. Grover Phillips led all scorers with 24 and Travis Blocker pumped in 15 for the CAPS.

COLUMBIA 68 LEXINGTON 55

In this first meet with the Wildcats the Caps rallied from a 13 point deficit late in the second quarter and then pulled away in the third period as they nipped the Wildcats. Lexington club had a 29-16 lead with 5:47 in the first half and then scored with 3:07 remaining to make it a 31-20 lead. But Columbia scored the next 10 points with Harold Jackson doing the inside damage and Walter Hughey doing the outside work. Hughey's 18-footer with seven seconds left in the half tied things at 34. Lexington was taller but had trouble blocking out against the shorter and quicker CAPS. Hughey and Phillips managed 16 points each to lead the scorers. Travis Blocker's rebound basket at 6:02 of the third. Donald Dantzler's score from the lane and baskets by Phillips, Reggie Hopkins in close made it 46-36 and all but decided the issue.

COLUMBIA 72 DREHER 79

Dreher used 9-4 scoring surge to defeat the CAPS in a 4-AAAA thriller. The Devils led 70-63 with 2:46 remaining but the CAPS hit five straight baskets. Grover Phillips tip in at 2:32 and Chris Dixon's 3 point play pulled Columbia within 70-68 with 2:16 left. But the Devil scored to overturn the CAPS. Terry Blocker hit 21. Grover Phillips 18. Chris Dixon came off the bench to hit an important 3 pointer.

Girls' Basketball

The Girls' Basketball Team has had its problems this season, but had managed to win some exciting games, like an overtime game win against Dreher. Of the twelve players five were seniors. They were Cindy Meetze, Cindy Camp, Violette Hunter, Janet Kearse, and Kim Broadway. Because of an injury, Kathy Davenport was unable to continue play this season.

COLUMBIA 34 CAMDEN 44

Cindy Camp scored 12 points as the Girls were defeated by the Bulldogs. The game was close until the fourth quarter when the Bulldog girls went into an unstoppable shooting spree. Kim Broadway and Violette Hunter both scored 6 points. Libby Jeffcoat scored 8 and Michelle Clifton scored 2 for the CAPS.

COLUMBIA 35 EAU CLAIRE 56

The Eau Claire girls jumped out into an early 12-8 first period lead and never trailed as they defeated the CAPS. Kim Broadway lead the girls in scoring with 15 points, Violette Hunter hit 14, Michelle Hendrix pumped in 4, and Cindy Camp contributed 2.

COLUMBIA 17 LEXINGTON 82

Lexington took this victory in a first meet with the Wildcats after the Wildcats jumped out to a 20-0 first period lead. The CAPS TTES had a hard time scoring as the Wildcats girls continued to out shoot and rebound them. Kim Broadway connected 3 times to have 6 points, Cindy Camp hit 4, Violette Hunter 2, Michelle Clifton 2, Cheri Terrapin 2, and Libby Jeffcoat 1.

2001-2002 GIRLS BASKETBALL TEAM: Libby Jeffcoat, Michelle Clifton, Cheri Terrapin, Janet Kearse, Violette Hunter, Cindy Camp, Michelle Hendrix, Kim Broadway, Kathy Davenport, and Deserae Moore.

COLUMBIA - 30 LEXINGTON - 80

In the second meet with the Wildcats the Wildcats placed five players in double figures as they remained undefeated against the CAPS. The CAPS trailed throughout the game and never came close to the hot hand scoring of the Wildcats. In the losing cause Kim Broadway pumped in 17 big points for the CAPS.

COLUMBIA 33 AIKEN 64

The Aiken traveled a long ways as they defeated the girls in a tough first quarter. The girls could not maintain the shooting and Aiken began to blow them out. In this game the scoring spread, each girl scored.

COLUMBIA 46 DREHER 55

Kim Broadway hit 15, Violette Hunter hit 9, Cindy Camp hit 8, Michelle Clifton 3, Michelle Hendrix 5, and Libby Jeffcoat 6 as it wasn't enough to defeat the Blue Devils in a close game.

Volleyball

The Volleyball Team ended the season with eight wins and seven losses. The team consisted of thirteen players, three of whom were seniors. These three seniors, Kim Broadway, Kathy Davenport, and Violette Hunter, were the ALL-STARS on the team.

Debra Ruff was chosen as MOST IMPROVED PLAYER, Kathy Davenport and Violette Hunter were awarded the LEADERSHIP AWARD, and Chen Terrapin was selected as MOST VALUABLE PLAYER, for the 1977 season. Michelle Taylor was the official scorekeeper for the CAPITALS. The Caps hosted the Region 4-AAAA Playoffs where they finished as fourth runner ups

Gymnastics

The Gymnastic Team of 1978 had one of the best seasons and records in Columbia's history. The team consisted of sixteen players. The only two seniors on the team, Chandra Davis and Patty Darlington have helped their team to accomplish their victories. In team competition the CAPS had a difficult schedule but always managed to maintain a high point average. The team is very young and with Chandra and Patty being the only seniors, look for the Team to perform even better in 1979.

This group of musicians performed various types of music for the student body this year. They presented along with the chorus the Christmas program of 1977 which was very successful. Because of Jeffery Hunter and Wendell Jumper's outstanding talents, they were chosen to play for the University of South Carolina Marching Band. Jeffery played the trumpet and Wendell played the saxophone. For the audience entertainment before and during halftime of the basketball games, there was the PREP BAND. The PREP BAND members were: Carol Bowman, Pam Bynoe, Wayne Hamilton, Felicia Scott, Veronica Smith, Beth Cooper, Wendell Jumper, Stan Little, Hahns Tueber, Jeff Davis, Belly Sandel, Mike Highland, Michelle Hendris, Mathew Smith, Dwayne Cofield, Jeff Hunter, Cindy McCowen, Scott Plexico, Rob Doyle, Wayne Grubbs, Bruce Robertson, Mike Danielson, John Doudoukjian.

Coaches

The Coaches of Columbia High School have done outstanding jobs in training the minds of their athletes of today for the world of challenges of tomorrow. The coaches have taught their players to perform their athletic talents in the sport or sports they are successful in. The causes of success for the sports teams at Columbia are that the players rid themselves of selfish attitudes and develop their minds to team attitudes. The coaches also stress that clowns don't belong on the fields, courts, or floors but in the circus and that their players should always be ready to display their discipline. They have taught their players to strive for the Number One position at all times. The best motto an athlete can follow is ONE SHOULD STRIVE FOR EXCELLENCE FOR EQUAL IS NOT GOOD ENOUGH!!

Establishing New Goals For 77-78

Executive Council is the highest form of student government at Columbia High. It assists the administration in developing and carrying out policies concerning student activities. Members are elected by the student body and serve for one semester. Mrs. Vivian Martin, Council sponsor, aided the council this year in sponsoring many projects, some of which were visiting Westside Nursing Home, raising money for the March of Dimes, and Columbia High "Landscaping Day."

Determined To Achieve Excellence

This year's HI-LIFE Staff has worked extra hard to accurately bring you each of the monthly events. They have featured an interesting array of articles whose subjects include anything from school spirit to Columbia High's smallest Varsity Cheerleader. The 77-78 HI-LIFE staff should be commended on their excellent work this year with hopes that they will continue in the future

Friday September 9, 1977, the first Miss Columbia High School Beauty Pageant was held. The pageant was sponsored by the COLUMBIAN yearbook staff. The theme of the pageant was "Beauty Through the Ages." Slides were shown of each girl. Showing how they had changed through the years.

A Season Of Capital Pride

Homecoming week began early with preparations to get the WHOLE student body to show their Capital Pride. Different clubs and organizations sponsored projects. Key Club mixed a concoction with who-knows-what and served it during lunch in the canteen area. Anchor Club sold mums throughout the two weeks before Homecoming. Representative Council also sold links to the homerooms and let every 5 links count as 1 spirit point. With these activities, dressing in maroon and gold on Homecoming Day, and anticipating the announcement of Miss Homecoming, it really was a busy season

"To Burn A Witch"

On Wednesday December 7 and Thursday December 8, 1977, the Columbia High Drama Club presented two one-act plays. They were "To Burn A Witch" by James L. Brax and "The Diary of Adam and Eve" by Mark Twain. C.H.S. students in the play "To Burn a Witch" were, Connie Lucas, Vicki Shearin, Kim Milam, and Claire Tueber. The cast of the play "The Diary of Adam and Eve" were C.H.S. students, Geoff Wingard, Lisa Hayes, Bruce Napier, Sharee St. Louis, and Joey Sharpe. Both plays were directed by Bob Hungerford.

After weeks of practice and two night performances a cast party was definitely in order. "To Burn a Witch" Performed At Winthrop College, S.C. In March.

Humanitarian Of The Year

The Class of 1973 established the Christine Webb Humanitarian Award in honor of Mary Christine Webb, former principal of Columbia High School, for "an outstanding dedication to the school community, for sincere compassion, for an exceptional fairness toward mankind, and for optimism, and the belief in the goodness of man."

The Class of 1977 chose Columbia High School as the Humanitarian of the Year. Columbia High School was established as the first public school in Columbia and was located in the center of the city of Columbia. Although the location has changed old traditions still linger. Columbia High will truly continue to give opportunities to future students.

Ruben Mayer Receives Honor

On Awards Day, May 1977, Ruben Mayer was awarded the highest award possible at Columbia High School, the Bill Goudelock award. This award is presented each year in honor of Bill Goudelock, the first Columbia High graduate to be killed in the Korean War. It symbolizes loyalty, honesty, and high moral standards. Ruben was on the B-Squad, J.V., and Varsity basketball teams. He was awarded the Capital Pride award of the basketball team. Ruben was a member of Representative and Executive Councils. He was also a member of the Key Club and the National Honor Society. He was president of the National Honor Society and graduated first in the Class of 1977. With this outstanding record, Ruben definitely deserves this award.

(1) BECKY . . . You cannot add two and two and get five points. (2) A sure two points. (3) A peaceful moment between classes

The first day of school is always a day of confusion. Freshmen running around getting lost in a new school building. Sophomores worrying about getting into classes with their friends. Juniors concerned about senior ring orders and getting Mr. Webb for English. While Seniors are worried about getting the right courses and enough credits to graduate. Yet through all this confusion there is a feeling of togetherness. A feeling called Capital Pride.

Capital Pride is achieved by becoming a part of Columbia High. This involves going to football games, being a part of the clubs program, helping with homecoming festivities, and being involved with the many other activities offered at Columbia High.

For Freshmen, Capital Pride is a beginning towards the next four years of school at Columbia High. For Sophomores and Juniors it is a way of becoming more involved and learning more at and about Columbia High. For Seniors, Capital Pride is a memory of good and bad happenings, a period of mixed emotions, and a time which no Senior will ever forget.

Though Capital Pride is the main feeling around Columbia High it takes many different feelings to compile this Pride. Some of these feelings are love for the school, for each other and for students in the past as well as in the future. Many students experience likes and dislikes for fellow students along with jealousy, envy, and even respect. Many students show their feelings by the way they act in classrooms, hallways, the lunchroom, the canteen, and even the main office. Though there are many different actions as well as feelings in students and faculty at Columbia High there is one feeling that is definitely a part of all of us: CAPITAL PRIDE!

Capitals Pride Themselves In Their Togetherness

Togetherness is a way in which many students express their pride for Columbia High. Many students show and do this by supporting the sports activities by being a part of them and also in keeping the club program going on year after year. Not only do the students at Columbia High show their togetherness in sports and clubs but also in the classroom. Some students do this by helping each other in their studies and by assisting teachers. Without togetherness or pride Columbia High would not be the great school it is today.

Alma Mater

Columbia High, our Alma Mater,
Praise to thee we sing.
Our faith and loyalty forever
To thy portals bring.
As on through life
We make our way,
Our memories will not fail.
All glory, honor, praise to thee,
Columbia High School HAIL!

“To Everything There Is A Season,
And A Time To Every Purpose . . .”

Ecclesiastes 3:1
